Ranked Choice Voting (RCV) is a confusing, chaotic, radical voting system that is being pushed by the progressive Left to elect marginal candidates not supported by a majority of voters. By changing how Americans vote, Democrats can manipulate who wins elections.

What's wrong with Ranked Choice Voting?

- ▶ RCV eliminates "one person, one vote"
- ▶ With RCV your ballot can be thrown out and your vote may not count
- ▶ RCV eliminates transparency and ballot accountability
- ▶ RCV is confusing and complicated, and prone to errors and fraud
- ▶ RCV decreases voter turnout by making voting more complex

Democrats pushed Ranked Choice Voting in Maine and Alaska through ballot initiatives and implemented it in cities across the country, including San Francisco and New York. Despite the Idaho Legislature passing a law in 2023 to prohibit the use of Ranked Choice Voting in Idaho, radical Leftist groups like Reclaim Idaho are pouring money into Idaho in an attempt to override our laws with this ballot initiative.
