

🔥🔥 THE MAY 2024 PRIMARY DIRECTIVE: JUST TELL ME WHOM TO VOTE FOR & HOW. NOW!

Are you a conservative in a hurry? Don't have the time or desire to dig into the candidates and the issues? Just want the bottom line of whom to vote for and how? Then this section is for you. Click the underlined links or download the PDF (sharable short link: <https://tinyurl.com/4he9c5mc>)

. Register to vote Republican.

. NOTE: Online registration is closed, but the link provides alternatives.

. Find your precinct, congressional district, legislative district, county district, and polling location.

. Find out what's on the ballot (County Clerk's office).

. Pick your candidates. The ConservativesOf voting guide offers excellent picks for Idaho federal, state, and many counties including Precinct Committeeman. We also like Stop Idaho RINOS guide. These are best of the bunch for those with no time to research.

. More voting guides here.

. Our own recommendations here.

. VOTE!

. Vote in person on Election Day (May 21, 8am - 8pm; most desirable, most secure).

. Vote early in person (until May 17).

. Vote by mail (least desirable, least secure; avoid unmonitored drop boxes).
